GARLIC & ROSES

By DAFFY DILL

There is no necessity for looking now . . . if you don't care to, but that sad, sleepy appearing individual you just passed is none other than D. Dill, who at the present time, (1:00 a. m.) is now beginning this current masterpiece due to the efforts of his beloved editor, who a few brief moments ago roused the said Dill from his comfortable bed and made up his mind that tonight of all nights was the time to write a column. Back to the galley, slave!

It may be just a passing fancy of ours, but—what in the world caused Joe Cook, George Ellis and Wallace Durham to evacuate that house on 14th street in such a hurry Sunday morning? But, then, 3:30 a. m. is a very good time to take it home for a bit of rest. Unless we err, this tale should be told to the tune of an improvised ditty which went in this manner: "Good night, my love, the tired old bed is descending." No verses following have been made up as yet according to reliable report.

There are many ways to mount your trophies. Just what were the four objects tacked to one of the walls in the "Trassiner (open) Arms?" For more detailed information, apply Eddie Adolphe Rassiner or Alvin Trigg.

Clatter and clash, around and round the boys roll and where they stopped, the stove knows. What landlord and roomer were in a fine grapple, punch and clinch affair Saturday, or was it Friday night? Landlord according to best of information seems to have come out an also ran. These midnight battles are really hard on roomers, not to mention what they do to stoves. And also, you might have respect for the hard working police force, which has enough to do without separating landlords and roomers.

Knock, knock! Who could be there? Just Julian Ortiz (of flower-pot fame) who wanted very much to be out of the public eye. Question: Who and what did he find in his room when he arrived there one fine night last week?

Tsk! Tsk! What is the name of the Westernite who came into his domicile Monday evening to find his bed handomely decorated with a certain type of glass ware? Added innovations included a note, the language of which was moving in its power.

Familiar face—that of Pete Booker, former Western backfield ace who wandered in from Florida over the week-end . . . all of which brings up memories of the first year I was a freshman at dear old Western.

Seek and ye shall find: This was not the case of some of our better known Western football heroes who were searching for something not found out in the Forest Park area one nice wet night not so long ago.

We know its out of date, but if that "ole man ribber" doesn't cease this rising business, one of the "Collichotspots" will soon be reviving that "River Stay Way From My Door" song.

Example of inertia: Jack Owen, who lacked energy to chase his hat when an unruly gust of wind removed it from his head over at C. C. C. No. 4 in the cave area Thursday.

Great minds in concord: Our "ex" and present Buwky editor

Ralph "Southpaw" Dudgeon

The gentleman in the act of shooting is Ralph Dudgeon, versatile southpaw guard who hails from Lebanon, Kentucky. Ralph is a junior, earned his letter last year and did not play Freshman ball.

Dudgeon was also number one man on Western's tennis team in 1935 and 1936.

SPEECH CLASSES ATTEND BANQUET

Western Classes Inaugurate Annual Event Last Friday Night

"A Speech for Every Day" was the theme of the program to follow the first annual banquet of the speech department of Western Teachers College held Friday evening at the Helm Hotel. The banquet, which was conceived by Dr. J. Reid Sterrett, speech instructor, was attended by approximately 125 students and faculty members. Gus Winkenhof served as toastmaster. Five-minute speeches for each day in the week were delivered as follows: Sunday, "Sesquedolian Speeches"—John Lovett; Monday, "Alibi Speeches"—Paul Davis; Tuesday, "Domestic Speeches"—Mrs. Summers Brinson; Wednesday, "Romantic Speeches"—A. E. Stone; Thursday, "Political Speeches"—C. B. Basham; Friday, "Plattery Speeches"—Warren Miller; Saturday, "Gesture Speeches"—Walter Pearce.

The speakers, all members of one of Dr. Sterrett's speech classes, were selected by class members.

WESTERN WILL HAVE ORATORICAL CONTEST FINALS AT 7:30 P. M.

A preliminary oratorical contest will be held in the auditorium of Snell Hall this afternoon at two o'clock to select Western's representative in the state oratorical contest to be held in the near future.

Pete Trinton, Norris Vincent, John Welch, John Lovett, Warren Miller, Marshall Marcum and John Hackett are scheduled to speak in the preliminary contest. Of these boys, three will be selected to speak in the finals, which will be held in the Snell Hall auditorium this evening at 7:30.

From the three finalists, Western's representative will be selected.

KEA DATES IN APRIL

The annual K. E. A. convention will be held on April 14, 15, 16 and 17, this year. As usual Western will cooperate by closing for the major part of the meet in order that the many teachers and future teachers attending school here may attend.

HILLTOPPERS DEFEAT MIDDLE TENNESSEE

The Hilltoppers opened up a power attack here last night which swept the Blue Raiders of Middle Tennessee off their feet throughout a game which ended with Western in the lead 48-32, despite the fact that Coach Diddle had used practically his entire squad.

In the preliminary game the Western Frosh came out on top 31-24.

95 MORE SCHOOL DAYS IN 1936-37

Many Events Scheduled for Remaining Days of 1936-37 Year

Only ninety-five more actual school days in this school year and what a number of important events before June 4!

From January 26 to January 30 students will lament:

"The melancholy days have come,

The saddest of the year,"—for this period is dedicated to the first semester examinations.

February will bring Washington's birthday, the K. I. A. C. tournament and Valentine day.

March will bring the looked forward to S. I. A. A. tournament—and strong winds.

April will bring the spring term students into the fold, the K. E. A. holidays and the basketball season.

From May 31 to June 5 will be "red letter" days in the lives of some of the students as this is the period of final examinations. It will even go so far as to put some students in the position of "to be or not to be,"—graduates.

Commencement with all its thrills and pageantry will begin May 30 with the Baccalaureate Sermon, and the concluding exercises will follow in rapid succession with Commencement following, in all probability, on June 3.

Western Jefferson County Alumni Plan Jan. 30 Fete

Kelly Thompson Placed in Charge of Second Annual Banquet; Dance to Be Held Later in the Evening

Western's second annual Louisville and Jefferson County Alumni banquet, scheduled for January 30, in Louisville, promises to become one of Western's greatest rallies of the school year. Kelly Thompson, head of Western's publicity department, has been selected chairman of the preparations committee.

The reunion will be held in the Georgian Room of the Kentucky Hotel, with a dance scheduled to follow the banquet.

The Western Men's Glee Club will be featured on the program, over which Temporary President O. J. Stivers, will preside. President H. H. Cherry is scheduled to make the principal address of the evening.

In addition to the many former Western students in and around Louisville, many of Western's faculty members are looking forward with pleasure to attending the meet.

In 1936, when it was voted that the rally become an annual affair, 250 former Western students were present.

Glen Kendall was elected president of the Louisville group last year, but was forced to resign when he accepted a position at Norris, Tennessee. Superintendent Stivers was appointed temporary president on December 16.

Other officers elected at the first annual meeting are: Robert Turner, teacher at Barrett Junior High School, vice president; and Bertha Trunnell, secretary.

Mr. Thompson's assistants and their duties are as follows: Mrs. Suda Butler, Jefferson county supervisor, in charge of the music; L. L. Knight and T. T. Knight are in charge of the reception; Frank Hays is responsible for the ticket sales; Raymond Hornback is in charge of the publicity; L. M. Jones will supervise decorations; and Joe Howard and Charles Blake are in charge of the invitations.

The final committee meeting was held Friday, January 15, in O. J. Stivers office with Kelly Thompson presiding.

B. U. KAPPA BETA PI SORORITY NAMES NEW SPRING TERM HEADS

The Kappa Beta Pi Sorority of the Business University elected officers for the spring semester during a regular meeting date Tuesday, January 12, at the school.

At the business session Katherine Michael was named for sorority president as was Emma Harned for the office of vice-president. Other active offices filled were: Secretary, Mark K. Knight; treasurer, Sarah Davidson; reporter, Natalie Clark.

Evelyn Morris was elected chairman of the executive board and her aids for the duties of this office will be Mary Lee Martin and Mary Hayes.

WESTERN GIRLS START BASKETBALL PROGRAM

The Western physical education classes for girls offer an interesting program for next semester.

The following are some of the activities offered:

Quot Tennis, Archery, Soft Ball, Track and Field, Rhythmic Activities, Simple Athletic Games, Paddle Tennis and Tennis, Shuffleboard, Table Tennis, Archery, Tumbling, Volleyball.

Spring Semester At B. U. The new term of the Business University is scheduled to start Monday. Advance indications are exceptionally good.

WESTERN SCHEDULE OF EXAMS POSTED

Regular Classes Meet on Monday of Test Week

Those students at Western who were congratulating themselves on finishing exams on Wednesday have another think coming—a "payoff" for the extra day of vacation granted Thanksgiving. As Dr. H. H. Cherry explained, so many days per semester is the ruling straight from headquarters—Frankfort—and the schedule must be met.

According to the plan announced this week the extra day of recitations will be held on Monday, January 25.

The examination schedule calls for all two-hour classes meeting at 7:30, 10:10, 1:20 and 3:20 to hold exams on Tuesday at 7:30, 10:10, 1:20 and 3:20 respectively. All two-hour classes meeting at 8:30, 11:10, and 2:20 are scheduled to have tests on Thursday at 7:30, 10:10, and 1:20 respectively.

All three, four and five-hour classes meeting at 7:30, 10:10, 1:20 or 3:20 will hold test periods Wednesday at 7:30, 10:10, 1:20 and 3:20, respectively. Three, four and five-hour classes meeting at 8:30, 11:10, 2:20 or 4:20 will be given tests Friday at 7:30, 10:10, 1:20 and 3:20 respectively.

All test periods will be two hours in duration.

DR. D. WEST RICHARDS WILL DIRECT CANTATA

Dr. D. West Richards, head of Western's music department, has recently received word that he has been chosen district director of the National Music Clubs of Kentucky.

Dr. Richards will direct the presentation of a modern cantata, "The Nun," composed by Phillip James, at the national convention of the Women's Federation of Music Clubs of America, to be held at Louisville in April.

CHERRY COUNTY LIFE CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

The Western Cherry County Life Club will meet this evening at 7:30, according to an announcement made in chapel yesterday.

The meeting was moved up from last evening in order to avoid conflict with the basketball games with the Middle Tennessee Teachers.

BASKETBALL BANQUET SLATED FOR MARCH 12

Western's annual basketball banquet will be held on Friday, March 12, a week after the S. I. A. A. basketball tournament is held here. Tentative plans call for a "W" Club dance in the Western gym after the banquet.

ANNUAL SENIOR DAY
SLATED FOR APRIL 9
ON WESTERN CAMPUS

Western's annual High School Senior Day is to be held on Friday, April 9, this year. Plans are being executed to make this the biggest and best Senior Day at Western thus far.

Dr. William R. Spriegel has announced that a general school dance will be held that evening by the Social Committee in a cooperative gesture toward the "High School Senior Day" committee.

Unsuppressed Suppress-

Editor's Note: The following article appeared in the Thursday, January 14, issue of the Millsaps Purple and White:

Hold the press. Clear all telegraph wires. Cancel all engagements and hold the pose. Here comes the biggest story that has blazed across front pages since Grandpa was a pup and Aunt Jennie had the chicken-pox.

We sit, thunderstruck and shaken, quivering with excitement at the immensity of it, spellbound with awe, as we numbly try to assemble our shattered wits so as to conceive of the immense responsibility—its dynamic power.

The blood is pounding in our brains and specks swim around before our eyes. Our hearts feel as though they will break with excitement. We are in spasms. Our eyes are popping and salt tears of heartbreak and anguish flood down our faces.

How could five little words hold so much potential dynamite? We quake with fear as we try to conceive of the quandry into which the world will be thrown when we emblazon them across the skies, how they will strike terror in the souls of fathers and mothers and unforgiving hate and disillusion among the children.

With unbounded fear of consequences and with premonitions of the holocaust of modern civilization, we can withhold no longer that, "There ain't no Santa Clause."

LOCAL INSTRUCTORS

MEET AT RICHMOND

George V. Page, Guy Forman, and Ed Nelson of the physics department at Western Teachers College and J. Rondle Wright of the Bowling Green Junior High School faculty attended a meeting of the Kentucky Chapter of the American Association of physics teachers Saturday at Eastern Kentucky Teachers College at Richmond.

Mr. Forman presented a paper on the subject, "Rectifying Properties of Crystals."

STERRETT PRESENTS
TUESDAY PROGRAM

"Two Other People" Is Heard
Over Station WHAS

J. Reid Sterrett, play production instructor at Western, presented a radio play, "Two Other People" by Walter Stone, on Tuesday over station WHAS. This was the first broadcast of its kind to be presented by Western.

The actors chosen for the play, twenty-eight minutes long, were Robert Jame; Reithel, Mildred Jones, Norris Vincent, Grace Schenck, Norris Adair, Pete Trimpton and Bill Cox.

The play presented a boy and a girl, excitement hungry, meeting by chance in a large city. Through false leads, each believes the other to be from a different level of life than that which each enjoys, what started as a mild adventure turned out to be an exciting predicament.

The chorus will present Gounod's "Galia" and several compositions of Western's music department faculty members and music majors.

DANCE SCHEDULE FOR SECOND SEMESTER AT WESTERN MADE KNOWN

Dr. William R. Spriegel, chairman of Western's social committee, has announced that the following events have been tentatively scheduled for the second semester: February 5, faculty reception to students; February 19, dormitory dance; February 26, general school dance; March 12, basketball banquet and "W" Club dance; March 19, freshman dance; April 9, general school dance; April 30, Junior and Senior Prom; May 14, Senior Dinner Dance; May 21, R. O. T. C. Field Day and dance.

Bland Coffman was the first Western player to make the S. I. A. A. team.

Digestion often needs Camel's aid too!

OFTEN during a hard, tiring day, smokers pause to get a "lift" in energy with a Camel. And at mealtimes, Camels offer a helping hand to good digestion. They help you to enjoy your food more. And Camels increase the flow of digestive fluids—alkaline digestive fluids—so vital to a sense of well-being. Make every meal more zestful—more pleasant—by smoking Camels. With their matchless mildness, Camels are better for steady smoking.

WESTERN IS LOSER TO LOUISVILLE 5 IN HOME OPENER

Freshmen Take Lyne Oilers
in Preliminary to Tune of 36 to 14

The University of Louisville, unsuccessful in four previous KMAC starts, completely outplayed a bewildered looking group of Western Hilltoppers, and handed the Diddle team its initial beating of the current college season with a 33-25 score in the opening home game played here Saturday night. The Western freshmen outfit took a 36-14 decision from the Lyne Oilers, Russellville independent five.

Si Monen, Louisville forward, blasted field goals from every angle to gain the high scoring notch with 18 points, while Western's sensational Saddler failed to get close on his efforts from the floor. Saddler also blew seven of nine chances from the foul line.

South scored his lone point of the evening to start the game, and McClocklin hit from the floor to put the Hilltoppers in the lead. Dudgeon split a couple from far out and McClocklin added another field goal to run the Hilltopper lead to 8-1. U. of L. tied the count at 8-all and Reed counted a field goal to again send the local team in the lead. Monen sent Louisville to the front 17-15 before the end of the half, and thereafter the Cards were never headed.

The second stanza saw the local team go scoreless for the first eight minutes while Louisville took a 10 point lead, and seven points was the narrowest margin of separation during the remainder of the game.

Three field goals were all that the Hilltoppers were able to gather during the final half, missing with the greatest regularity that has been observed on the local floor in many a moon.

Red McClocklin was the outstanding player for the Hilltoppers as far as any of them were outstanding. The lanky center scored nine points for local honors, and retrieved about 75 per cent of the rebounds.

Coach E. B. Stansbury used 22 men to defeat the Russellville team in the preliminary game. Hazellrigg of the freshmen and Stengell, Russellville forward, divided scoring honors with eight points each.

In a contest Friday evening at Murray the young Hilltoppers dropped a 29-28 decision to the yearlings of Murray Teachers College.

HARVARD'S "CATALOG" AGAIN A "CATALOGUE"

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—When is a "catalogue" not a "catalog?" The answer is: this year.

After experimenting for a year with the latter spelling, Harvard University has gone back, to the former.

Last year, for the first time, the Harvard handbook, with the names of students, faculty members, courses and general information, was a "catalogue." This year it is again a "catalogue."

High School Debate Champs

The next championship debate will be on the subject, Resolved: That all electric utilities should be governmentally owned and operated. The leading high schools throughout the state of Kentucky are members of the debating league. The Kentucky champions, together with the champions of more than 30 other states, will participate in a national high school debating tournament next May.

WPA ACTORS PLAN CINCINNATI SHOW

"It Can't Happen Here"
Opning St for January 26

CINCINNATI, Ohio—Continuing its policy of presenting outstanding modern dramas, the WPA Federal Theatre of Cincinnati will produce the widely heralded "It Can't Happen Here," opening at the Emery Theatre on Monday, January 26, according to Franklin Raymond, State Director for Ohio.

With a total run of 80 weeks behind it since its 21 simultaneous productions in 18 cities last October, the J. C. Moffitt-Sinclair Lewis dramatization of the latter's novel, is still playing to capacity houses in New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia.

Responding to the popular demand expressed in an audience-questionnaire which showed that 80 per cent of the WPA Federal Theatre patrons favor contemporary plays concerning vital issues of the day at popular prices, the Cincinnati project has planned an extensive schedule of plays to follow up "It Can't Happen Here." These include tentatively, W. H. Auden's "Dance of Death," and Ernest Toller's "No More Peace."

Martin Flavin's "Around the Corner" and "Help Yourself," which ran for four months in New York are also under consideration.

AUTHOR ALLEN JIBES EDUCATION "RACKET"

MIDDLEBURY, Vt.—Hervey Allen, author extraordinary of encyclopedia-sized novels, has turned his attention to education, and in a Middlebury college bulletin calls those who teach "voodoists of psychology" and "wizards of the great racket of education."

He threw many jibs at the professors and instructors who "every year invent a whole new dialect of terms and abstractions to describe even the most ordinary phenomena."

In commenting upon the perfection of the Broad Leaf School of English, he said that at that school "No time is lost in purblind and 'finician' lectures on the psychology of the A-Z group in B-3 high school grade, fourth ward, soda centre, or upon the deep mysteries of how to attract attention or to ventilate a school room."

Alexander Improvises
Jack Alexander, Western Teachers College student who underwent an operation for appendicitis last week at City Hospital, was removed Tuesday afternoon to the home of his sister, Mrs. O. O. Burgess, at 534 1/2 East Main street. He is reported to be getting along nicely.

SCIENTISTS SAY OWLS NOT WISE, BUT USEFUL

The owl's reputation for great wisdom is quite unmerited. Scientists have known for a long time that the owl is one of the "dumbest" of all things in feathers; though a recent announcement of that commonplace fact got considerable press notice. But though he isn't wise, Old Hooty is nevertheless very useful. He feeds mostly on mice and other small rodents, and helps to keep their numbers below the proportion of an absolute pest.

GARLIC AND ROSES

playing peek-a-boo with his girl friend (age—between two and three) at one of the joints Tuesday night.

Things that make the life of a columnist easy: Examinations in general, because there is so much more life going on during exam week than at other times . . .

English exams in particular, because it's so easy to get into the swing of one after putting in an hour or so at writing this . . . spending a quiet week-end at home, because then you have so much more material to write about than if you had been circulating around the country side.

Foolish feeling: Going into a grocery store years ago in Greenville, Ky., and ordering a peck of "spuds" only to find myself greeted with a sack of Irish potatoes held in the hands of an eager appearing clerk. What's in a name?

Featuring a memory stunt: The neophyte groping for higher education who wandered into one of the local "Inns" to order a sandwich and ordered "One of these cheese sandwiches with all that red stuff mixed up in it." Which is, wa gather, one way of saying pimento.

Thursday and Friday
"The Gay Desperado"

The "Trovadores Chicanos," famous Mexican radio trio, make their film debut in "The Gay Desperado," which brings Nino Martini, handsome singing star to the Capitol Theatre.

Singers and guitarists, the trio, Pedro Galindo, Roque Castillo and Nicandro Castillo, rank foremost in popularity among Mexican radio stars. "The Gay Desperado," features Ida Lupino and Leo Carrillo.

Saturday
"Sworn Enemy"

If Robert Young is more muscular since he played in "Sworn Enemy" than he ever was before he can thank Nat Pendleton.

Nat advised the young leading man in the gymnastic secrets that have made the Sandow of "The Great Ziegfeld" one of the strongest men in the world and put him in the Olympic wrestling class.

Pendleton plays a prizefighter in the new picture, and Young a "gang buster." Joseph Calleia, Florence Rice and Lewis Stone are also featured.

Sunday and Monday
"Gold Diggers Of 1937"

"Gold Diggers of 1937," newest of the famous series features Dick Powell and Joan Blondell with Lee Dixon, eccentric dancer formerly with Rudy Vallee's orchestra.

It has a score of comedians, 200 dancing beauties, and much catchy music. It was directed by Lloyd Bacon and Busby Berkeley.

Hardin and Hickman, former Westerners, made the K. I. A. C. net team for three straight years.

"Big" Weaver, the big league baseball player, used to pitch for Western.

"Thru The Keyhole"

By PEEPIN'

Extra! Extra! Another freshman has broken into the limelight. It is reported that Frank Cole called up a girl last week and told her to meet him in a certain theatre.

Attention: All of you who claim to be a "Herlock Sholmes!" One of the biggest mysteries of all time confronted us last week. Why did Virginia Dent object to John Perkins staying in Russellville? Did that "little green dragon" become acquainted with Virginia?

Romie Bell was seen the other day in the library starting a budding romance with some fair lass. Wonder who the lucky girl was.

Congratulations to the new senior officers. George "Stephen Douglas" Jungerman was selected president; Virginia Earl Venable, vice-president; and Billy "Flash Gordon I" Runner, secretary-treasurer.

Did you notice how "Gordon I" asserted his magnetic power over girls last week at the class election. "Gordon," why don't you give the girls a break?

Is Bobby "Natural Ability" Quinn still having those late dates and staying out until 8:30? Maybe Mary Jane Morgan could answer this.

Although Billy Richeson has constantly told Nathaly that he couldn't skate, he is often seen at the skating rink with a Milbrey girl.

After telling Paul Deemer that she couldn't have a date Sunday night, Sue Lawson was seen with Tommy Wilson. Neal "Buck Rogers I" Garrison is often seen with the same girl.

When Helen Elrod had a date with someone else Friday night, H. J. McNair was taking full advantage of the time with "Pete" Topmiller. "Sleepy" is quoted as saying that he was intending to have a "big time" and from all indications, he did.

"Doc" Francis doesn't seem to be able to get his mind off of "Teeny"

Cole in the library.

All of Bowling Green High was grieved this week over the loss of Martha Barnes, one of our most popular girls, to Hopkinsville.

"Izzy" Clark is still battling with Laura Barton Dent while Glenn Fields appears to need Bluebeard's help with Mary Alicia Webb.

Deran Self is taking quite an interest in Elnora "Pus" Hammonds. Keep it up, big boy!

Bill "Dick" Thomas and Gwendolyn Raymer are fighting one day and apologizing the next. Wish they would make up their minds, it's enough to run a columnist crazy.

James "Casanova" Skinner reports that all is quiet now, but that he has "big doings" coming off over the week-end.

COLLEGIATS JOLLITY IS MERELY A FRONT--PROF.

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—The "hot-chas" and "hi-de-hos" of college students are just "fronts," according to Prof. L. M. Sears, head of Purdue University's history department.

"You would be surprised how little jollity or genuine gaiety there is among youth in college," he said. "Collegiate jollity is of the hectic, excitable type. But actually the student is under the weight of many things which constitute real worries.

College students worry about their studies and whether they are pleasing their professors. They worry about whether they are pleasing their fellow students and thus are obtaining popularity. They worry about their careers—whether they will have careers at all. They worry about the right person to marry."

Professor Sears declared he is convinced that the age of college youth is not a "golden age."

CHALFANT ACCEPTS PLACE AT SUPERIOR

John W. Chalfant, 26-year-old life endowment student at the Bowling Green Business University for the past two years, left Wednesday to accept a stenographic position with the Lake Superior Coal Company at Superior, West Virginia.

Mr. Chalfant, former resident of Shadwell, Virginia, made his home here at the J. Frank Denton residence on the Scottsville road.

CO-ED IN JAIL ON COLD CHECK CHARGE

A young woman, who registered as Rowena Pettit of Sparta, Tenn., was lodged in the local jail early Sunday morning on a worthless check charge after police arrested her at the local L&N passenger depot with a one-way ticket to Louisville in her possession.

The woman came to Bowling Green Friday with the announced intention of attending the Bowling Green Business University and gave the university and a local bank checks.

When questioned at the depot she told officers she was preparing to leave for Tennessee to spend the week-end with her parents.

COLLEGE HI WINS
OVER CAVE CITY

High School Drops Game
With Woodburn Tuesday Night 30 to 24

Coach Bear Lawrence's College Hi netters handed Cave City a pronounced drubbing on the local floor Tuesday night, coasting to a 33-8 win, while Bowling Green High School took it on the chin at Woodburn by a 30-24 count.

College Hi allowed the Cave City five but a pair of foul tosses in the first half, while taking an 18-2 lead. Despite the large lead, the local team displayed a bit of raggedness at times, but evidenced by the exhibition that trouble is in the making for their future opponents.

Cave City spurred for its initial field goal shortly after resumption of play in the last division, and the boys played with such zest for about a minute it appeared as if they intended to make a contest of the affair, but the typical Cave City far-out shooting was started, and the Barren team doesn't happen to have its usual sharpshooters.

Jimmy McGown collected 16 of the College Hi total for high scoring honors.

Bowling Green High was able to collect but a single field goal in the first half of the game at Woodburn and thus ended on the short end of a 15-6 score at the rest period.

Although outscoring the Woodburns 18-15 in the final half, the Purples were not able to close the 9-point margin.

Bill Thomas led the local team in scoring with 10 points, and he was followed by Ralph Clark with eight. J. Thornton, Woodburn center, was high scorer for the evening with 11 points, and was followed by his brother, Robert, with nine.

College Hi travels to Russellville for the only game on the local high schools' schedule Friday night, Bowling Green High being idle because of inability to fill the date on the schedule.

By this time you should be hep to the fact that where you will find Nina McGuffey you will, more than likely, also find "Buck" Holyfield. Tuesday afternoon, Shirley is out pulling the working girl stunt and obligingly takes Nina down to her scene of daily endeavor. However, once sure that Nina is on the job, she hurries back to school and picks Buck up for little Shirley.

The usual procedure has been for "Tugie" Godboldt to double-date with Buck. Whenever Buck and Nina have a date, Tugie will date Shirley. When the two lads arrived Saturday night Shirley, though no word had been said to that effect, was dressed and ready to join the merry throng of revelers. This time, however, Tugie had Katherine Michael with him and Shirley for some reason did not get to go.

"Libby" Meador and Margie Galloway have taken it upon themselves to break away the shell of bashfulness that surrounds that Casanova-in-the-rough, Chester "Jersey Lily" Butenschoen. This experiment in social re-adjustment may be witnessed any night at 625 12th street, immediately after supper.

Meador and Galloway have approached their problem from a very scientific view-point. Progression is being made from the simpler to the complex forms of "love-doveying" so that Buten may overcome his tendency to blush.

Witnesses report that Buten is standing up under the treatments admirably and that lately "Libby" is the one that is blushing. It is also reported that "Deacon" Cofer is unable to take it and makes a break for the door as soon as the evening meal is over.

Dot Person enjoys a good show more than any one we can think of at the present moment. After going to see a certain show with Earl Richey on Sunday night, she had to return with Bill Smith the next night to see the show again. The same show ran Tuesday night but as yet we can't find who Dot was with that night. When Bill asked her how she happened to know so much about the show she told him that she had seen it in Nashville during Christmas.

Despite all of this, Bill is certainly satisfied with her company. The people next door tell us that Bill walks approximately three blocks after leaving Dot before his feet touch the ground. And another "woman-hater" bit the dust.

Perry "Punctuality-plus" Cassimus is taking an extended course in French finance. The able little instructor is none other than Maxine. The first lesson occurred right after the Christmas holidays; Maxine called Perry up one Sunday night and invited Perry to come have supper with her.

When the meal was over, all the money that Maxine was able to find was a twenty dollar bill. As the hash-house did not have the necessary change, little Perry was stuck for the meal. The taxi driver that took them down to get Maxine's trunk also did not have change; so Perry was stuck for that, too.

When Perry, the ten minute kid, returned to his abode, he was heard to mutter something about going out and renting a U-Drive-It and going the whole hog. (The of-

What the country needs is more of this—man-made weather, a blizzard you can turn off when the snow gets too deep. When Frances Gilmore was chosen to reign over the annual Snow Sports Carnival on Mile High Mountain, her coronation was held in a Los Angeles park. The above picture shows the made-to-order blizzard raging against a background of palms. The queen's court wore varied costumes, from bathing suits to ski outfits.

"SPORTS- onia"

BY BYRON STUART

We were all disappointed in Western's first home game, but remember, even champs have their off days!

My predictions for the week (including last night):

Western vs. Middle Tennessee, Western.

Murray vs. Union University, Murray.

Morehead vs. Louisville, Morehead.

Centre vs. Union College, Union.

Morehead vs. Eastern, Morehead.

Louisville vs. Oakland City, Louisville.

Kentucky vs. Tennessee, Kentucky.

Western vs. Murray, Western.

Western vs. Vanderbilt, Western.

Georgetown vs. Alfred Holbrook, Georgetown.

Sptaking of champs having off days—remember when Mutchler failed to register when Western played Murray there last year?

"Red" McCrocklin doesn't seem to have those "off days"—he just gets "hotter" once in a while.

Western's frosh cage team finally came through with a win after dropping close ones to Middle Tennessee and Murray.

Three Louisville boys, two of which played Saturday night, are in Western's team, and one cheerleader, Eddie Rassiner, also hails from the Falls City Area. In addition to these are many other students at Western who claim their home to be Louisville. Many of them went to school with members of the Louisville Cardinal team which defeated Western Saturday. Wonder just who the Louisville students at Western really were cheering for?

After the closing two or three minutes of the Louisville game several comments from spectators were heard. A composite summary follows: "Champs were made as targets for challengers to upset and perhaps the best virtue of a champion is holding his head when defeat becomes apparent." Enough said?

Western will face the toughest opponent on the current schedule within the next week. Saturday night the Murray five will be met there. Monday night Coach Buford will bring his Vanderbilt Commodores to the Western gym for what is expected to be a classic long remembered by Western fans.

Mr. Diddle "had something" when he urged the student body on Monday morning to "be sportsmanship" and not boo the officials and opposing teams.

Results of some games played last week by K. I. A. C. teams: Georgetown 40, Union 39. Kentucky 32, Akron 22. Murray 52, Delta State 31. Wesleyan 31, Centre 32. U. of L. 33, Western 25. Kentucky 23, Mich. State 24. Murray 41, Millsaps 28. Union 41, Centre 33. Murray 33, West Tennessee 30. Murray 48, Miss. College 26. Wesleyan 28, Transy 19. Eastern 28, Louisville 26. Berea 33, Eastern 26. Morehead 41, Centre 39. Centre 29, Marshall College 33. Murray 46, Middle Tennessee 17. Eastern 35, Georgetown 26.

Standing on all predictions:

Won	Lost	Tied	Pct.
46	14	3	.766

The K. I. A. C. standing (exclusive of the Louisville-Morehead clash last night):

	W	L	TP	OPT
Morehead	5	0	188	157
Eastern	5	1	178	159
Georgetown	4	2	197	118
Union	3	2	188	169
Western	1	1	65	58

Last week I lost on Western against U. of L. Kentucky vs. Michigan State, Centre vs. Union and Eastern vs. Berea.

Naturally I wouldn't think of seeing you at the Vandy game Monday night!

Morehead has an average of 38 points per game against K. I. A. C. competition and a 42 point average against all opposition.

Western has an average of 42 points per game while her opponents have averaged only a fraction more than 26 points per struggle.

Monday. Maxine approached Perry "I'll be there in a minute" Cassimus and asked him to take her to the Kentucky Klub Dance Friday night. Perry took such a bountiful reaming the time before, though, that he would only consider it if she furnished the buck fifteen.

Wonder what has happened to "Rose-bud" Ellis. We thought that he was the one who controlled Maxine's destinies. Wonder if he still has the three photos showing Maxine as a brunette, red-head and a blonde?

Annetta "Spasm" Mason got tired of coming in off dates at eleven o'clock as her landlady requested. Accordingly, she spent Saturday night with Helen Dickey. Twelve o'clock saw her out on the Louisville road with Joe Cook. It seems that she and Joe are the first roller-rink romance.

Joe had a date with Annetta

Monday night. He was a little late calling for the young lady as he waited outside the house until S. W. representatives had left. Annetta came back from her date with the announcement that she had a date with Joe for Wednesday night and inquired, "How'm I doing?"

Overheard:

"Julian Ortiz is certainly a finished dancer."

"I wondered when he'd stop."

Harry Day is the "tall, dark and handsome" in the life of the little lady who supplied the local merchants with so many samples of her autograph. She called him her

"brunette crooner" and she is still calling for him. Harry won't go down to see her in her loneliness and she has sent him message after message, too.

Seem: that Paul Tull and Maynard Hubbard have been doing the well known "turning on." Maybe they have forgotten that they aren't supposed to frequent billiard halls and visit the well known "Nite Spots"—or is it that they are just "away" from Middlesboro and that the news won't get around?

Wonder if Della Cunningham, the little Pineville brunette is going to forget her "regular" back home?—or will she be true?

WESTERN DRILLS FOR MURRAY AND 'VANDY' CONTESTS

Murray to Be Met Saturday Night; Vandy Here Monday

Coach Diddle and "his boys" will face the two teams that probably will prove their sternest opposition of the season in Murray and Vanderbilt on Saturday and Monday evening, respectively.

The Murray game, to be played at Murray looms as the first hurdle, as well as the chief stumbling block in Western's path toward K. I. A. C. and S. I. A. A. honors for the season. The Thoroughbreds, S. I. A. A. champs of '36, have four of their "Five Aces" back in the fold and appear destined to go places again this season. Last year Western won two out of four contests with Murray, dropping the regularly scheduled game at the Purchase stronghold by a 31-15 margin. Last week Murray enjoyed marked success on a four day southern trip.

Vanderbilt, highly respected in Southeastern Conference circles, defeated Sewanee by a comfortable margin, has twice downed Middle Tennessee and dropped a hard fought game to Georgia Tech by a 39-27 count. The Bufordites will play Western in the first of a home and home series in the Western gym on Monday evening.

Coach Diddle will probably use the same lineup that has seen opening service throughout the early season games. Reed, McCrocklin, Saddler, Dudgeon and Lamar appear to be openers at Murray and the event that they "click" will again open for the Hilltoppers against Vandy.

The Red and Grey clad basketballers have been drilling intensively this week for the coming games.

UNION U. DEFEATS WESTERN DEBATERS

Double-Header Dropped; More Debates for Next Semester

The clear, forceful elocution of Eddie Hicks was the deciding factor in Union University's twin victory over the Western debate team here yesterday in the auditorium of Snell Hall on the Teachers College campus.

It was Hicks' persuasive oratory that during the afternoon brought about the agreement on the part of the judges that "Congress Shall Not Have The Power To Regulate Minimum Wages and Maximum Hours In Industry," and Monday evening it was the oratorical ability of this same boy that caused the afternoon's decision to be reversed in order to favor the affirmative side of the question.

Hicks and his colleague, James P. Hester, succeeded in tearing down the arguments of Ray Logan and August Winkenhof, Western debaters, upholding the affirmative side of the question, in the issues Monday afternoon. In the evening, the combination of Hicks and J. Simmons took the affirmative side of the question and successfully defended it, thus giving the Jackson, Tenn., men a twin victory. Elbert Taggart and Warren Miller upheld the negative side of the question for Western in the evening debate.

Prof. J. Reid Sterrett acted as chairman in the afternoon, while J. P. Cornette held the chair in the evening. Judges in the afternoon were Dr. Clarence P. Denman, Dr. William R. Spiegel, and Dr. J. H. Poteet. Judges for the evening debate were Messrs. Murray Hill, Arthur Joseph, and J. T. Orendorf.

This was the first intercollegiate debate to be held at Western during the current school year. Other debates will be arranged as soon as the new semester gets under way.

Named Loyola Coach

Larry (M o o n) Mullins, head coach of St. Benedict's College at Atchison, Kas., was named head coach Tuesday at Loyola University to succeed Eddie Reed.

TCPA WILL MEET IN CHATTANOOGA

Thirty-Five College Papers to Be Represented in Meet

The Tennessee College Press Association will hold its next meeting in Chattanooga on February 11-13.

The College paper's problems and the relation of the college press to the newspaper world will be discussed. Business managers and editors will meet jointly and in separate session to consider difficulties in their respective departments.

Several prominent newspapermen will take part in the meeting as speakers and advisers. The three Chattanooga papers are offering the services of some of their men as speakers. Several college editors are to lead discussions in editorial sessions. King will lead a round table discussion of "Sports Coverage."

Issues of the 34 college papers in Tennessee which belong to the association will be sent to Chattanooga to be judged and criticized before the meeting. Awards will be made to the three best publications in the state.

STUDENT BORROWS EYES TO AID COLLEGE WORK

CANTON, N. Y.—Charles Heltman of Cleveland furnishes the "reading eyes" that enable David Williams, son of a Rochester Unitarian minister, to obtain an education at St. Lawrence University. Williams' sight is impaired. A fellow student, Heltman reads all of the textbooks from which Williams' listening intently obtains his knowledge.

MURRAY KEEPS SIAA SLATE CLEAN TO DAY

Murray College boasted Wednesday of its sixth successive SIAA basketball victory and eighth straight win in as many starts.

The Thoroughbreds, losing little time in gaining a lead, drubbed Middle Tennessee Teachers, 46-17, Tuesday night. Burdette averaged with 13 points.
